NEPOPULARNA PSIHLOGIJA

NEPOPULARNA PSIHOLOGIJA (UNPOPULAR PSYCHOLOGY)

Nepopularna psihologija is a nonprofit organisation whose aim it is to popularise psychology (and related sciences) in accordance with the principles and integrity of the profession. The Nepopularna psihologija team, composed of graduated psychologists, has been summarising scientific articles to explain various phenomena in psychology, organising public lectures, workshops and similar activities in the local and wider community for the past 5 years.

CONFERENCE THE SCIENCE OF PSYCHEDELICS IN PRACTICE

The first multidisciplinary conference on psychedelics in Croatia is being organised with the goal of raising awareness about scientific research on psychedelics and their potential application in medical and therapeutical contexts. As psychedelics are very often a taboo topic surrounded by myths and stigma, we wish to begin a conversation between experts from different fields and the broader public. Lectures will be given by scientists, experts, clinicians and therapists, and a roundtable discussion on the state of attitudes and research on psychedelics in the region will be held.

WHAT CAN WE OFFER YOU?

Nepopularna psihologija, alongside producing its own content, regularly collaborates with other organisations, scientists and experts in the field of psychology. It achieved the reach of over half a million users on social media only in the last year, and thus has a sizeable audience both online and offline. For established sponsorships, we offer different promotion options on our social media accounts, but also at the conference itself:

- Your logo and/or link on all promotional materials of the conference
- Your logo on official conference shirts
- Your logo, link and/or organisation profile on social media sites (NP website, Facebook and Instagram)
- Your organisation's leaflet/info pack distributed to all conference participants
- Your organisation's presentation by your representative at the conference itself

If you are unsure about the option best suitable for you, please refer to the promotional packages we offer listed on the next page.

For any inquiries about the conference, participation, funding and sponsorships, please visit the official conference website The Science of Psychedelics in Practice, or contact us at urednistvo@nepopularna.org.
